

*Gemma Acton,
Finance Editor, Seven News*

Gemma is the finance expert within the national Seven News team and is fast becoming one of Australia's foremost business and financial commentators. As Seven's Network Finance Editor, Gemma covers financial and business stories making headlines across the country and around the world.

Gemma is featured as a regular on The Latest from 7NEWS, anchored by Michael Usher, covering up-to-the-minute developments on the biggest news events of the day. Gemma joins Michael live at the desk to discuss the latest financial and business news stories and how these issues will impact Australian consumers. The Latest airs Monday to Thursday on Seven.

Gemma can also be seen hosting AusBiz TV: Australia's leading provider of live and on-demand video of the latest news in Australian business, markets, economy and startups. Each week, Gemma interviews chief executives, company founders, fund managers and industry experts.

Prior to joining Seven News, Gemma spent several years working in Finance at prestigious institutions including Goldman Sachs, Merrill Lynch and PIMCO and later was a valued member of the CNBC team as a news anchor and correspondent based out of London.
