

John Trott
Global Marketing Leader, HIV
Global Commercial Strategy Organization
Janssen Pharmaceuticals

John Trott is the Global Marketing Leader for HIV, leading the team that launched and supports 8 in-market HIV brands with sales in excess of $3 billion annually. Additionally, John is the commercial lead for 2 paradigm-changing products: a fully-injectable, once monthly HIV regimen launching in late 2020 and the first HIV preventive vaccine which is in late-stage human trials globally. John also chairs Janssen's COVID-19 Product Response Team, connecting our internal efforts with external stakeholders.
