

Pavel Oliva, CFA is the managing partner and founder of RockHill Global, LLC, a private investment company. Prior to founding RockHill Global, LLC, Pavel was a partner and a portfolio manager at SuNOVA Capital, a leading financial services fund. While at SuNOVA Capital, he invested in diverse financial services companies globally and co-managed the SuNOVA Global Fund. His experience in financial services dates back to 1994 when he began his career as an analyst and later vice president at Thomson BankWatch (now Fitch Ratings). He was responsible for ratings and analysis of numerous banks in emerging markets. A native of the Czech Republic, Mr. Pavel is a member of the Board of Directors of the Foundation for Civil Society, fostering pluralistic societies in countries emerging from a history of political authoritarianism and civil strife. He is a member of the Lauder Advisory Council. Pavel graduated cum laude from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh and earned an M.B.A. degree from the Wharton School and his M.A. from the Lauder Institute.
